DECISIVE BATTLE IS NOW BEING FOUGHT

General Kuropatkin Is Hard Pressed By Japanese.

MIKADO'S ARMY HEAVIEST LOSER

Military Experts Claim that Should General Oyama Win He Will Be Considered Greatest Military Genius. Soldiers Undergoing Harships.

Mukden, Sunday, March 5.—6 p. m.—All day long the battle raged ceaselessly, the Japanese being concentrating their energies on Machia Pu for the possession of which they have been struggling for two days, but with all their gallantry the Japanese were unable to dislodge the Russians who are defending their works with bull dog tenacity. Japanese shrapnel has been bursting within a mile and a half of the Hun railway bridge, which evidently is the Japanese objective. The capture of that position would render the occupation of the Hun river position south of Mukden untenable. Fierce and continuous artillery engagements are taking place about 4 miles north of Machia Pu.

From the Hun bridge a long line of battle stretches in both directions, as far as the eye can see. The northwest toward Tatche Kiao and eastward along the Shakhe river, marked by a line of bursting shells. The Russian losses are not excessive considering the severity of the five days' fighting. The Japanese as the attackers have suffered heavier than the Russians.

A decision in the battle should be reached tomorrow or Tuesday.

At 4:30 this afternoon guns began to roar west and northwest of Mukden railroad station, where General Kuropatkin is launching an attack against a Japanese extreme left.

During last night the Japanese repeatedly assaulted Pienchia Pudgu, Kaotou Pass and Kaniayen, farther east, but all their efforts were unavailing.

The bombardment of Erdagou, Novgorod and Poutiloff hills continues unsuccessfully.

Mukden, March 7—An official report in the Army Messenger, says

"The southern position is unchanged so far as Shakhe."

After acknowledging that the central army had fallen back from Sinchinpu in order to contract the length of the line of battle connecting the inner positions the army messenger adds:

"The spirits of the men are excellent. The marvellous composure is being displayed considering the approaching crisis."

The paper admits the Russian loss of a battery but the battle is going on successfully.

All the roads leading from Machiapa and the western plain which has suddenly been invaded by the battle are reported to have captured two machine guns.

News at St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, March 6—2:57 p. m.—The Associated Press has just learned that General Kuropatkin has launched a blow at Field Marshal Oyama's left center just east of the railroad. The fighting is desperate along almost the entire line.

Kuropatkin's losses in killed and wounded up to last night are placed at 23,500.

Oyama is believed to have alreaddy lost fully 40,000 men. The Japanese army, according to prisoners, is greatly exhausted. They repeat the story that some of General Nogi's men have not had any food for two days.

St. Petersburg, March 6, 2:50 p. m.—The result of the greatest battle of modern times is expected to be determined today or tomorrow. Two of the largest armies of recent times, both in men and guns, are now locked in a death struggle, and although General Kuropatkin has evidently made every preparation to cover his retreat by removing his accumulated stores and munitions northward it is now the opinion of military men here that one side or the other cannot escape an overwhelming disaster. With both wings bent backward Kuropatkin's positon appears to be desperate, but the issue is still in the balance. The news of a victory for him is only regarded as possible by his breaking through the enveloping lines and news of a concentrated offensive is hourly awaited. Unless Kuropatkin can strike, and strike hard, is is realized that he must lose.

Military critics declare Oyama has not great enough superiority to take risks. According to the war office Oyama has not over 70,000 men in excess of Kuropatkin, whose forces total about 340,000. Should Oyama succeed the critics declare that he will prove himself to be a master of military science and establish a reputation for military genius of the first magnitude. But unless he can completely crush Kuropatkin's right they say Oyama is in imminent danger of having his own left cut off and destroyed.

Russian Warships In Red Sea.

Aden, Arabia, March 7.—A Russian warship is reported to be patrolling the center of the Red Sea. She has been turning her searchlights on passing vessels.

MAY LIVE FOR 150 YEARS.

An Ohio Divine Says this Fact Can Be Accomplished.

Chicago, March 7.—Man may live happily and usefully for 150 years, according to Dr. Lyman Beecher Perry, of Oberlin, O., who has expressed this belief in an address on science of living, before the Young Men's Christian association of Chicago.

After a third of a century of scientific study such is my conclusion, said Dr. Sperry. The destructive forces which bring about the present low average longevity were manifold, but I believe it is possible to enjoy good health and an activity up to a century and a half by proper understanding of the human possibilities and the exercise of this knowledge.

Dr. Sperry says the "Science of Living," his main object, apparently being to point out the influences which retard longevity, with stress on the theory that immorality has a direct bearing on the physical being.

Climatic conditions, according to Dr. Sperry, have been reduced to statistics, proving beyond doubt that both torrid and frigid atmosphere tend to shorten existence. All the longevity worth mentioning, it is claimed, existed in the temperate zone.

In relation to the destructive force of evil habits Dr. Sperry spoke at length and his scathing treatment of drink, tobacco and opium was said to be derived from personal association with victims.

DEATH DUE TO POISONING.

After an Autopsy There Is No Doubt About Mrs. Stanford's Death.

San Francisco, March 7.—The Call says today that the local authorities now have positive assurance in the form of information by cable from Honolulu that Mrs. Stanford's death was directly due to strychnine poisoning. The stomach, kidneys and heart were found upon examination, it is said, to be in a very healthy condition, and much above those of the average woman of Mrs. Stanford's age. There was, however, a sweling of the heart that the report says would only be produced in death resulting from strychnine poisoning. No trace of strychnine was found by the chemists in the stomach yet agree that there is no longer any doubt of the cause of the death of Mrs. Stanford.

Prominent Chicago Physician Dead.

Chicago, March 7.—Dr. Peter Faherny is dead at his home here of heart disease. His last business transaction was the deeding to the Dunkard church of Hagerstown, Md., of 300 acres of land at San Mar, 10 miles from Hagerstown, for the erection of an old people's home. Dr. Faherny was 65 years old, and had accumulated a fortune estimated at more than $1,000,000.

Baron Lambermont Dead.

Brussels, March 7.—Baron Lambermont, secretary general of the foreign office, died today, folowing a stroke of paralysis on Saturday. For half a century the Baron had much to do with directing the foreign policy of Belgium

MRS. CHADWICK IS PLACED ON TRIAL

Andrew Carnegie Faces Woman In the Court Room.

BOTH SIDES READY FOR TRIAL.

Mrs. Chadwick Is Charged with Violations of the National Bank Laws. Andrew Carnegie Present to Give His Testimony.

Cleveland, March 7.—The trial of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick for alleged violation of the national bank laws began in the United States district court today before Judge R. W. Taylor. No one was admitted to the court room without credentials.

The case was set for 9:30 and ten minutes prior to that time Mrs. Chadwick came into court in the custody of two bailiffs. She was calm and self-possessed. She wore a black skirt, white silk waist, over which was worn a black velvet coat. She wore a wide black hat. She took a seat at a long table in the center of the courtroom immediately behind her leading counsel, Jap P. Dawley and resting her chin on her right hand remained a closelly interested spectator. As soon as Judge

MRS. CASSIE CHADWICK.

Taylor had taken his seat he said:

"The case of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick."

"We are ready, your honor," said Prosecuting Attorney Sullivan.

"We are ready," announced Mr. Dawley.

United States Marshal Chandler summoned 12 jurors to the box and as soon as they were seated Mr. Dawley addressed the court, saying:

"We would like to know, your honor, what will be the rule in this case as far as the matter of challenges is concerned?"

"I don't think," replied Judge Taylor, 'that we can make any hard and fasts rule concerning challenges, but I would suggest that the counsel challenge as much as possible for cause without saying that the charge against Mrs. Chadwick was conspiracy against the United States in connection with financial irregularities committed in various transactions with the Citizens' National bank of Oberlin, O.

Mr. Dawley then commenced the examination of the jury. He was busy with the third juror when the door opened and Andrew Carnegie, followed by S. T. Everett, at whose home he is staying, entered the room.

Mr. Carnegie gave one quick glance at the woman sitting by the table and then walked quietly past her to a seat on the east side of the court room.

Mrs. Chadwick was ignorant of his arrival and made no sign as he passed her. Later the information was whispered to her that Mr. Carnegie was in the room, but she did not turn her head nor glance in his direction.

Mr. Carnegie, on the contrary, seemed to be highly interested in Mrs. Chadwick, and as he sat where he could study her closely without being himself observed he took advantage of his opportunity to the full, and subjected her from time to time with close scrutiny. From time to time he held whispered conversations with Mr. Everett and they reviewed his interest in the proceedings.

Mr. Dawley in mentioning the name of his client invariably called her Mrs. "Chadwick" which afforded considerable amusement to the audience at first and caused Mr. Carnegie to smile broadly when he first heard of it.

The jury was secured in less than an hour.

PRESIDENT NAMES CABINET.

Only Change Is in the Portfortio of Postmaster General.

Washington, March 7.—The special session of the senate was opened today by loud applause for Vice President Fairbanks when he appeared in the chamber to preside. He at once rapped the senate to order and prayer was offered by Chaplain Hale.

The first order of the vice president was to direct the secretary to read the journal. Contrary to the usual order the reading was allowed to proceed to its conclusion. The new senators Piles of Washington, Hulkely of Connecticut, Flint of California Nixon of Nevada, Burkett of Nebraska, Raynor of Maryland, Carter of Montana, Sutherland, of Utah, and Hemenway of Indiana, were warmly greeted by their colleagues in the senate.

In response to a resolution Mr. Allison and Mr. Gorman were named as a committee to notify the president that the senate was in session and ready to receive any communication he had to offer. Recess was then taken to 1 p. m.

The president sent a large number of nominations to the senate today including all of the members of the present cabinet except Postmaster General Wynne. Mr. George B. Cortelyou was nominated for that office.

It was anounced today that Secretary of Treasury Shaw will retire from the cabinet in February, 1906.

READY TO MEET STRIKE.

In Case of Walkout New York Street Car Company Has Men on Hand.

New York, March 7.—It is learned that 52 men arrived here last night and were quartered aboard a steamer in the North River were brought from various cities of the west to forestall a threatened strike on the subway and elevated lines controlled by the Interborough Rapid Transit company.

In spite of the efforts to keep the arrival of the men a secret, the employes of the Interborough company were informed and at a meeting of the executive committee of the Amalgamated association did not break up until this morning the situation was thoroughly discussed. The opinion was unofficially expressed that a strike cannot be averted.

It is understood that agents acting for the company expect to mobilize a force of at least one thousand. The first clause of the contracts with the men specifies that the applicant "fully understands that this is for strike work in the city of New York." Those who desert are to receive no pay whatever.

FISH SMOTHERED BY DENSITY.

Hundreds of Tons of Dead Herring in Bottom of Departure Bay.

Nanaimo, B. C., March 7.—For the third time within three years has occurred that remarkable phenomenon of hundreds of tons of dead herring lying at the bottom of the channel near Departure bay, and there seems to be no explanation of the killing except that the fish came rushing in in such numbers that they were smothered by their very density.

Fishermen say they saw the herring come rushing through the water with the swish of escaping steam, seemingly gasping and panic-stricken. For 24 hours the rush kept up, until the bottom of the channel was white with dead fish, heaped in places to the height of three feet.

A conservative estimate of the amount of herring killed in the course of 24 hours is 1,000 tons, almost as much as the amount drawn from the harbor by fishermen during the whole season.

$5,000 Worth of Jewels Stolen.

New York, March 7.—Jewelry worth $5,000 has been stolen from the apartments in Sherman's square, of Dudley Olcott, a well known club man. So far the police have obtained no clew to the thief who entered the apartment while Mr. and Mrs. Olcott were attending a theater.

LAST MEMBER OF DAVIS' CABINET DIES.

Death Claims Judge John H. Reagen, of Texas.

DEMISE RESULT OF PNEUMONIA

He Held the Portfolio of Postmaster General in Confederate Cabinet. Since War Has Been U. S. Senator, District Judge, R. R. Commisioner.

Houston, Tex., March 7—Judge John H. Reagan, sole surviving member of the confederate caginet, died at Palestine, Tex., this morning, aged 86 years, of pneumonia.

Because of his advanced age the death of Judge Reagan was not unexpected. He was in this city on Thursday transacting business. When he returned home the family physician was called in, Judge Reagan complaining of trouble in his lungs. On Sunday it was known that pneumonia had set in, and Judge Reagan grew rapidly worse.

Gathered in the death chamber were his wife and daughters and W. Greenwood, his son-in-law.

Hundreds of telegrams of condolence are being received here from all parts of the United States. The funeral will take place at Palestine on Wednesday afternoon.

John H. Reagan was the last surviving member of the confederate cabinet, he having held the postmaster general portfolio. After the civil war he was elected district judge in Texas and he became a power in the councils of the Democracy of Texas. He was elected to the United States senate and served with distinction in that body. After retiring from the senate Judge Reagan was appointed chairman of the state railroad commission. During the last few years he retired from active political life and lived on his farm near Palestine.

At the time of his death he was engaged in writing an autobiography of himself.

Man Filled With Buckshot.

Cordele, Ga., March 7.—Seville, a town 14 miles east of Cordele, was the scene of a serious, if not fatal, shooting affray Sundya night, in which Jim Worsham shot down W. C. Hamilton. The wounded man is said to be in a serious condition, and may not recover. The weapon used was a double-barrelled shotgun, loaded with buckshot, and nine shot took effect. It is said that the shooting was the result of Hamilton's attentions to Mrs. Worsham. Both parties live at Seville, where Worsham is a contractor and Hamilton runs a bar. Further information is hard to obtain, and it is not known whether or not Worsham has been arrested.

Will Make Finest Madras.

Columbus, Ga., March 7.—It is understood that Edmund W. McLean has rented space and power from the Bibb mill on North Highlands for the purpose of installing rooms and engaging in the manufacture of madras and other fine shirtings and shirtwaist goods of a superior quality. The goods to be manufactured will be the finest of the kind made in the south, it is reported in local mill circles. Mr. McLean is a young man, a member of a prominent Savannah family, and has had an experience of several years in textiles. He has been assistant superintendent of one of the Griffin mills, where he gained a practical experience in cotton manufacturing.

Negro Charged with Arson.

Atlanta, March 7.—On the charge of setting fire to the building of the Southern Bell Telephone company, Will Head, a negro, was arrested Sunday by Call Officer Abbott on complaint of W. T. Gentry, vice president and manager of the company. The case was entered on the state docket under the head of "suspicion."

Head admits that he was in the basement when the fire broke out, and that he was the first person to discover the fire. He denies that he did anything by which the flames could have originated.

GUARDS ARE O. K. SAID INSPECTORS

Large Company Turned Out for Inspection Tuesday Night.

BOYS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED

By Inspecting Officers, Who Stated That the Guards Was One of the Strongest and Most Efficiently Drilled in Florida State Troops.

Adjutant-General J. C. R. Foster of the Florida State Troops and Colonel S. T. Norvell of the United States Army inspected the Gainesville Guards at their armory Tuesday evening.

In response to General Order No. 1, commanding all members of the company to be present, Captain Layton was enabled to make a fine showing, and the men looked their best in their natty uniforms.

After a thorough inspection of the arms, accoutrements, etc., the company participated in a drill. The inspecting officers pronounced the company one of the strongest and most efficiently drilled in the State, which was indeed a compliment to both officers and men.

MISS YOUNG'S FUNERAL.

Held from the Episcopal Church and Largely Attended—Floral Tributes.

The funeral of Miss Winne Adeen Young, whose sad death occurred Sunday evening, was held from Holy Trinity Episcopal Church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Francis H. Craighill officiating. The edifice was crowded to the doors with friends of the deceased, who had assembled to pay the last tribute of honor and respect to one whom they held so dear.

Deceased having been a former member of the choir, several favorite hymns were rendered, after which the remains were borne to Evergreen cemetery, where the interment was held. Mr. Craighill, in the course of his remarks, paid beautiful tributes to the deceased, which were very impressive.

The casket was literally covered with beautiful and fragrant flowers, and in the procession to the cemetery nearly all the occupants bore wreaths and bouquets of roses and evergreens.

The death of Miss Young removes one of Gainesville's fairest and most popular young ladies, and while she is gone her memory will remain green and sweet with her relatives and friends.

MADE FINE SUGGESTIONS.

Hon. J. Murdock Barrs Talks to Citizens on Charter Question.

Hon. J. Murdock Barrs, city attorney of Jacksonville and one of the most thoroughly posted attorneys on municipal law and practice in the State, was in the city on professional business Monday, and while here, by special request, appeared before the committee on special charter and a number of prominent citizens of Gainesville at Dutton & Co.'s bank.

Col. Barrs made a very able and exhaustive address, covering the entire subject of municipal charters and laws, offering many valued suggestions relative to the proposed new charter, and in conclusion stated that he would be glad to offer any further suggestions in the matter, volunteering his legal advice and service in this direction.

The remarks of Col. Barrs were duly appreciated, and those present expressed themselves as being highly enlightened by the advice.

Names Stricken from Registration Book.

Notice is hereby given that at a regular meeting of the City Council of the city of Gainesville, Monday evening, March 6, 1905, the following names were stricken from the registration book. The City Council of the city of Gainesville will convene on the 22d of March, 1905, at 7:30 p. m. to hear complaints of any whose names have been stricken from the list and to restore their names if reason is satisfactory.

A LETTER TO MOTHERS

All Gainesville Women Should be Interested.

Mrs. Charles Perry of Glens Falls, N. Y., writes: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try that delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. We were so worried about our little daughter—she had lost flesh, was thin, pale and sickly, and nothing seemed to do her any good. Having heard of Vinol we decided to try it, and the results were marvellous. Her appetite has been restored and she is gaining in weight right along, the color has returned to her cheeks and she seems stronger than she has for years."

Every mother in Gainesville is asked to try Vinol on our guarantee to make children robust, strong and healthy or return money if it fails. Vinol is a pure cod liver oil preparation, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. It is delicious to the taste and children love it. It does not taste, nor look, nor smell like a cod liver oil preparation—yet it is.

We have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol to create strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children. W. M. Johnson, druggist.

NEGRO KILLED BY MOB.

Is Lynched for the Murder of a Pominent Physician.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 7.—The body of Dr. William B. Oliphant, who was shot to death by a half craszy negro at Helm Station, in Washington county, arrived here about 1:30 Sunday morning by the belated southbound train.

From the same train the negro who was responsible for the death of Dr Oliphant was taken from the deputy at Elizabeth station by a masked body of men and the reports that reached here are to the effect that he was promptly strung up before the train could get to the station.

It is stated that the negro had been held in jail as a mild lunatic and discharged only a few days previous to his escapade. At any rate, Dr. Oliphant was shot down in cold blood, the flesh being torn from his arm and side by the charge of buckshot, fired at close range.

THREE HELD FOR SHOOTING.

Rutherford, Who Was Shot Saturday, Died Sunday.

Montgomery, Ala., March 7.—Morris L. Rutherford, a boilermaker, who was shot and fatally wounded at a dance in West End, a suburb of Montgomery, Saturday night, died early Sunday.

J. D. Glass and George Glass, brothers, and Frank Bedsole, popular young white men of thesuburb, are held for the shooting. J. D. Glass admits he killed Rutherford, but Rutherford, in his antemortem statement, declared George Glass shot him. Three young daughters of Rutherford were participating in the dance at a residence. The young men were cursing outside the house and Rutherford remonstrated with them, when the fight ensued with fatal results.

Encampments for Regiments.

Birmingham, Ala., March 7.—The indications are that there will be no general encampment of Alabama troops this season. The tendency among the different military organizations of the state is for each regiment to summer in a different city. The artillery and the cavalry will most likely go to Mobile. Anniston, Montgomery and Birmingham will put in bids for the several regiments.

Travels 6,000 Miles to Wed.

Irwin, Pa., March 7.—"To Tobias Berkowitz, postoffice building, second story, Irwin, Pa., U. S. A.," was the inscription on a card pinned to the dress of an emigrant girl, who alighted from a Pennsylvania train here. A railroad employe sent word to Berkowitz, who appeared with Ludwig Kastrach, of Pleasant Valley. The girl had come alone from Poland. Her name is Annie Kerpack, and she is 15 years of age. She came here to marry Kastrach, who paid her passage. Annie says that she had no trouble in traveling the 6,000 miles to Irwin, as everybody on shipboard and on the cars was kind.

Japanese Fishermen Arrested.

Manila, March 7.—The customs officials have arrested three Japanese fishermen in conection with the plot prepared here to sink the British steamer Carlisle now at anchor in this port. They have been placed on board the Carlisle. The Japanese consul here is assisting in the effort now being made to clear up the mystery which surrounded the affairs.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM.

The first chrysanthemum show was held in Norwich, England, in 1829.

The Philadelphia Horticultural society held the first chrysanthemum show in the United States in 1833.

The first chrysanthemums brought to Europe were taken from China by skippers of the tea trading ships.

After the chrysanthemum is potted leave it for a little time in the shade. Then give it all the sun that is possible.

The chrysanthemum was introduced into England 200 years ago from China. It was grown first in Holland after its emigration.

The chrysanthemum is one of the easiest of garden flowers to grow, but it needs careful tending after it is brought into the house in pots when the frost comes.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Onions as Weather Prophets.

One of the rites performed by the French peasants on New Year's eve is the forecasting of the weather for the coming year by means of onions.

When the bells ring for midnight mass they scoop out the middles of twelve onions, set them in a row on the kitchen table, fill them with salt and name them for the months of the year. Then when they return from mass they examine the condition of the salt. If it has melted in any of the "months," those months will be rainy; if the salt remains dry, it indicates drought; if half melted, the first fortnight of the month will be wet.

The peasants have such implicit faith in this means of foretelling the weather that they plant their crops in accordance with the prophecy of the onions.

The Best Cough Syrup.

S. L. Apple, Ex-Probate Judge, Ottawa Co., Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Fifteenth Century Gambler.

In the time of King Henry IV. of England the "smart set" managed to play bridge or its equivalent without shocking the susceptibilities of those who think it wrong to play for money. The fifteenth century gambler, according to one historian, "played at cards for counters, nails and points in every house more for pastime than for gain." "Everie scholar or petyte (little one) that plaies for money is to be expelled," ordains a grammar school charter of the period. One of the duties of hospital sisters was "to make dilygentt searche amonge the poore for cards or dice."

Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood.

Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy.

Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the re-inforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polycarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902.

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the first six suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was in a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.

AN IDEAL HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parks Enjoy Life at Their Home, Pum Sutawney, Pa.

C. W. Parks' home is situated at the foot-hills of the Allegheny mountains. The house is finished throughout in hard wood. On the hard wood panelled walls of the reception hall are pyrographic portraits of David Garrick, Edmund Kean, Molle and Shakespeare. This work was done by Chas. Parks, Jr. The library, which is directly off the receptien hall, is octagon-shaped, and its walls are completely covered with books. It contains besides these, several suits of old English and Spanish armor, the duty of which amounted to several hundred dollars; ceiling is hung with queer old Arabic rifles and pistols. The music room is oblong in shape, and contains not one piece of furniture other than the piano seat. The ceiling is dome-shaped and decorated with portraits of the most famous musicians.

Mr. Parks' palace is a jumbled mass of most valuable odds and ends from a pair of Venetian shoes worn by Edmund Kean as Shylock, to a Roman toga, once the property of the great William Macready. Photographs of all theatrical celebrities; also musicians, authors, painters, statesmen, and other famous people adorn the walls. A magnificent oil painting of Mr. and Mrs. Parks occupies a wall by itself.

The very top of the home is given over to a theater in miniature. The hall seats a little over eighty guests. At the north end there is a small stage completely equipped with scenery, footlights and other stage furnishings. The stage has proscenium opening of twenty feet, and eighteen feet deep. The walls here are hung with family portraits of both Mr. and Mrs. Parks' families.

The lawn about the house, and which stretches the bank to the Allegheny river, is beautifully kept and is dotted over with Japanese maples. A bed of colias 20x10 feet in area stands in the center of the lawn, and is the admiration of all who visit the place.

In this charming home Mr. and Mrs. Parks, and their son and daughter, Sam and May, spend their time for only three months out of each year. There is an air of hospitality about their home which is at once charming and refreshing.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks and family will be in Gainesville Monday, March 13, for one week, with their famous theater company under canvas at the same grounds as before. We predict that the citizens of Gainesville will pack the tent to overflow during their stay in our city.

THE COUNCIL MEETING.

Little Business of Importance Transacted by That Body Monday.

The regular monthy meeting of the City Council was held at the City Hall Monday evening, but there was little business of importance transacted. This was the meeting at which President Broome, also chairman of the finance committee, was to have made his report, but Councilman Broome was prevented from being present on account of illness, hence the matter was deferred.

The regular monthly bills which were properly audited were ordered paid.

The regular monthly reports of the collector and marshal were received and ordered filed.

The council awarded to Jesse E. Burtz the contract for numbering the houses in the territory embraced in a recent order extending the free mail delivery routes.

At 9 o'clock the council adjourned.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of consumption, pneumonia, etc., you are lost if you do not get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better, when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed, at all drug stores. Price, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Meeting School Board.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Public Instruction for Alachua county was held in this city Tuesday, proceedings of which will appear in The Sun when properly recorded in the minute book. The Board of County Commissioners also held the regular monthly session, at which the regular routine of business was transacted.

THE CHAUTAUQUA.

Large Attendance and Interesting Programs.

The interest in the Chautauqua seems to be unabated, and the attendance at the sessions keeps up remarkably well.

The exercises at 2:30 p. m. yesterday consisted of the entertainment by William A. Bone, the poet, who recites his own productions in a very clever manner. He is a rising young man in his chosen field.

Miss Marrietta LaDell, the dramatic reader, gave several pleasing selections. She is a lady of real ability in her line of entertainment, and her recitations of little girl selections are the best on the platform today.

Evening Session.

The evening session opened with a brief program by Shelton & McClean, the musical team, and they gave general satisfaction. The musical bottles are quite a novelty. Miss LaDell also gave a fine rendering of "The Chariot Race" in Ben Hur. At 8 o'clock Rev. Chas. L. Herald, the brilliant Presbytarian orator, told of "Life on a Man o' War," and he opened the eyes of the young men who might be contemplating entering the navy. Being in the navy himself he speaks from experience, and he seems to have stood the hardships and come out with a fund of useful knowledge, which he imparts to his hearers with an address that commands strict attention.

Today's Program.

The program for today as announced will be poems by William A. Bone at 2:30 p. m., and a grand concert by the Tri-Century Concert Company at 8 o'clock p. m.

There may be a few additions to the announcements, but all are good.

Invaluable for Rheumatism.

I have been suffering for the past few years with a severe attack of rheumatism and found that Ballard's Snow Liniment was the only thing that gave me satisfaction and tended to alleviate my pains. March 24th, 1902, John C. Degnan, Kinsman, Ill. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Attention, Masons.

The regular meeting of Gainesville Chapter No. 41, F. & A. M., will be held at the lodge room over Dutton's bank this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work in Second degree. A full attendance desired, and visiting brothers gladly welcomed.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Marshal.

To the Voters of Gainesville:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of marshal, subject to the action of the citizens of Gainesville at the coming municipal election. I leave my case in their hands. If I have discharged my duty as marshal in the past, I ask their indulgence and their votes in future. If they do not think I have discharged my duty, then it rests with them. I will appreciate support, however, and promise as long as in the office to show partiality to no one. Respectfully, Chas. Pinkoson.

For Marshal.

To the Voters of Gainesville:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of marshal, subject to the action of the voters of Gainesville at the coming municipal election. Have always been a loyal Democrat, am always ready to render my aid and influence in support of right and justice, and if elected promise a fair and honest service, without fear or favor. Respectfully,

D. A. Robertson.

For Marshal.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Marshal of the City of Gainesville, and solicit the support of all the voters of said city at the coming election of city officers.

If elected, I promise to give to all the people a vigorous and impartial exercise of the duties pertaining to that office. Respectfully,

Richard A. Becker.

New Sheriff Appointed in Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., March 7.—A dispatch today from Montgomery states that W. W. Tatum has received the appointment as sheriff of Crenshaw county, vice S. D. May, who mysteriously left the state some time ago and has failed to return. His bondsmen have given up security for him, and the probate judge declared the office vacant. The governor thereupon appointed Mr. Tatum, which has met with universal approval.

ABOUT ADVERTISING.

When advertisers stop to consider that The Twice-a-Week Sun has a circulation in Alachua county of over 1,800 papers, and that the county has upwards of 32,000 population, it will be readily seen that all the papers in the county combined do not equal it as an advertising medium, and our assertion regarding circulating more papers than all others combined is true.

WORTH OF THE FARMER.

The more one goes into figures on the wealth of the American farmer, the more staggering, or incomprehensible, the amount becomes, says The Farm and Home Sentinel. If the farmers of this country have in recent years come to the fore as winners of wealth, the prosperity is due to their own persistent effort and honest toil. One seeks in vain to find where the farmers have combined their wealth or output and placed their money or farm products in combination akin to a trust. What the farmer has done has been largely due to individual effort. He has been a seeker after knowledge through his farm journals and the agricultural and similar associations to which he belongs. The farmers of America have been producing more wealth than do any other people on earth. Last year they cleaned up nearly $5,000,000,000 on their crops. Out of the proceeds of the corn crop last year the farmers could have paid the national debt and still have had enough money to run the government six or eight months. All that the gold mines of the entire world have produced since Columbus discovered America do not equal the value of the food supply raised on American farms during the last two years, while this year's product is over six times the amount of the capital stock of all national banks; it comes within $750,000,000 of equaling the value of the manfactures of 1900, less than the cost of materials used; it is twice the sum of our exports and imports for a year; it is two and half times the gross earnings from the operations of the railways; it is three and a half times the value of all minerals produced in this country, including coal, iron, iron ore, gold, silver and quarried stone.

DEMANDED JUSTICE.

Representative Lucking in the House at Washington made a strong speech in favor of severing diplomatic relations with Russia unless justice be given American Jews in that country. He declared that the non-action of the Russian government was probably a reflex of the half-hearted manner in which our State department made the request, asserting that our government had not entered upon the subject with spirit and zeal born of a profound faith in the demand for passport equality. Mr. Lucking said by that he was not criticising the present administration especially. He declared that if the Presbyterians, or Methodists, or Catholics were excluded and insulted by Russia because of their creed, the cables would fairly sizzle with the heat of the protests transmitted and Russian dilatoriness and insincerity would not avail. Mild protests would be turned into wrathful demands.

"This nation is itself insulted when one-sixth of all her people are denounced and degraded and refused treaty privileges," declared Mr. Lucking in closing. "A discrimination against them because of their religion is a stab at the vitals of our constitution, as pointed out by Secretary Bayard. The cause of offence is far more grave and profound than in any of those instances where nations have resorted to the remedy of severance of diplomatic relations."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

If we can only keep the "good roads" movement up Gainesville will soon be what it should be, the best city in Florida. We never heard a visitor speak disparagingly of the city, unless it was a chronic kicker or a person who thought it conveyed the idea that they had just come from the place where the streets are paved with gold, or some other high-class metal.

A Missouri man has invented and patented a machine for registering and counting votes and majorities. He is a little slow, as Pennsylvania has had a machine for 30 years that would furnish any kind of majority that was wanted. It was invented by a M. S. Quay who died just a short while ago. It was a paying invention.

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

Mrs. A. R. VanDeventer Entertained Friends in Royal Style.

One of the smartest society events transpiring in this city for some time was the reception and card party tendered Monday afternoon by Mrs. A. R. VanDeventer at the elegant home of Hon. Walter G. Robinson, from 4 to 6 o'clock, when about sixty of the best people of Gainesville enjoyed the hospitality of this estimable lady.

This event has been the subject of much discussion by those who had the honor of an invitation for several days, and had been anticipated with a great deal of pleasure.

Mrs. VanDeventer was gracefully assisted in receiving by Mesdames H. P. Robinson, L. C. Lynch and F. D. Warner, while Mesdames John Chesnut, J. M. Haile and M. B. Saunders, and Misses Helen McArthur, Eva Haile, Lois Haile, Alice Nichols, Rose Lynch and Carrie Miller were in the dining-room. Miss Jessie Bodiford presided at the punch bowl.

The tea tables were prettily and tastefully decorated with pink carnations. The rooms were also decorated with carnations, viblets and evergreens.

The refreshments consisted of chicken salad, chocolate and coffee temptingly served.

The evening was devoted to progressive whist, and the contest was prosecuted with a great deal of interest. There were fourteen tables.

The married ladies' prize, a handsome bonbon spoon, was cut for by Mesdames J. M. Haile, A. S. Wooley and J. A. Goodwin, the latter being the winner.

The young ladies' prize, a handsome silver embroidery set, was also "in litigation," the honors falling even to Misses Budd of Monticello, Carrie Miller and Ida Burkhim. Miss Burkhim having won on the cut, the prize was awarded to her. The ladies' consolation prize, a neat silver belt pin, fell to the "misfortune" of Mrs. John Chesnut.

One of the most amusing features of the evening was the awarding of the gentlemen's consolation prize—the only prize offered to the gentlemen, which was awarded to L. C. Lynch. This prize consisted of a neat leather medal with date and reading as follows: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." Attached to the medal was a tiny silver bangle containing the words "I am a" with a lobster embossed on the coin. Mr. Lynch's friends indulged in a great deal of fun over the presentation, but the winner declared he was glad to get the prize, and it made no difference to him how much his "jealous associates" had to say about it.

The gowns worn by the ladies at the evening function were as fashionable as can be found anywhere, many of them being exquisitely handsome.

Jury Secured, But Owing to Other Reasons Case Continued.

The case of the State vs. Fletcher Watson, charged with the murder of Garrett Chamberlain, which was called Tuesday morning, has been continued until Monday of the coming week. The jury in the case has been secured, but owing to the absence of some material witnesses the court permitted the continuance.

This case promises to occupy some time, since there will be a great many witnesses.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Col. John M. Fuller of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease by all druggists, at 50c a bottle.

Motorman Is Dragged Under Car.

Montgomery, Ala., March 7.—Thomas A. Hines, a motorman for the Montgomery street railway, was badly mangled in being run over by his own car at 7:20 o'clock this morning. It may be necessary to amputate both legs. He was removed to St. Margaret's hospital, where it is feared he may die. The accident occurred at head of Commerce street, at the head of the underpatch. In an effort to adjust his car, the motorman was struck by the stoan railing and dragged under the car

LIVING TOO HASTILY

AMERICAN WOMEN BREAK DOWN

Irregularities and Female Derangements Result—Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Owing to our mode and manner of living, and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, it is said that there is not one woman in twenty-five but what suffers with some derangement of the female organism, and this is the secret of so many unhappy homes.

No woman can be amiable, lighthearted and happy, a joy to her husband and children, and perform the duties incumbent upon her, when she is suffering with backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down pains, displacement of the womb, spinal weakness or ovarian troubles.

Irritability and snappy retorts take the place of pleasantness, and all sunshine is driven out of the home, and lives are wrecked by woman's great enemy—womb trouble.

Read this letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my health and brought on extreme nervousness and despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. Day by day I improved in health while taking it until I was entirely cured. I can attend to my social and household duties and thoroughly enjoy life once more, as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, without an ache or a pain." —Mrs. Chester Curry, 42 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass.

At the first indication of ill health, painful or irregular menstruation, pain in the side, headache, backache, bearing-down pains, nervousness or "the blues," secure at once a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

GREEN-GAYNOR ON TRIAL.

Objection Filed Against Magistrate and Case Is Postponed.

Montreal, March 7.—Messrs. Gaynor and Green, who are wanted by the United States government on charges of fraud in connection with the Savannah river improvements, were brought before Magistrate Lafontaine the extradition commissioner, today the question of bail being discussed. Pending an agreement the case was adjourned until the afternoon.

Mr. Tackereau, counsel for the accused men, filed an objection to the jurisdiction of the magistrate. The latter thereupon agreed to a postponement of the case until March 14, to give an opportunity to get witnesses.

The question of bail went over for argument until this afternoon.

Apples Sell at $7.50 Each.

New York, March 7.—The prices are said to be high in this country on account of the tariff but in England there is no tariff, but the prices on two seedless aples from Colorado were so high that several bushels of them would break even the richest man in the old country. Just 30 shillings, or $7.50 in good cold cash, apiece for two beauties from Colorado, is the quoted price in the London market. The following clipping from the London Times tells about them: "The first two seedless apples received from Colorado were sold last Friday at Covent Garden by Messrs. Garcia, Jacobs & Son to Messrs. Shearn, of Tottenham Court road, for 30 shillings each.

565 Pound Man Seeks Office.

Pittsburg, March 7—The fourteenth ward is proud of the fact that it has the heaviest justice of the peace in the world. Alderman Charles Kaltenhauser, who has been dispensing justice in that ward for years, tips the beam at 565 pounds. He is a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket, and the campaign managers have got out a large-sized placard announcing his candidacy and displaying a faithful likeness of the alderman. When inducted into office 15 years ago he weighed 365 pouns; since that time he has gained just 200 ponuds.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for constipation and biliousness." 25c at druggists.

FAMOUS ENGLISH WELLS.

Some Whose Waters Are Charged With Magic or Miraculous Power.

Though there are hundreds of wells supposed to possess magical power scattered all over England, the general public is ignorant of their locality or the romantic stories connected with each one. There may be a possible exception in the well of St. Keyne, in Cornwall, for Southey has made it famous in a witty little poem. The magic of its waters is such that the husband or wife who drinks first from it after leaving the altar will have the upper hand over the mate for their joint lives. The bride of whom Southey tells us did not wait till after the marriage ceremony to pay a visit to the well, but took the precaution of taking a bottle with her to the church.

Another well, in Monmouthshire, which has a peculiar fascination for the unmarried maidens is known is the "virtuous well." For generations the maidens of that locality have accredited it with marvelous powers in forecasting their futures. They have only to drop a pebble into its water and count the resultant bubbles, for each bubble represents a month of waiting for the day which will make them brides. In order to propitiate the genius which presides over the well it is necessary to decorate the brambles which shade it with bits of white cloth.

Then there are the so called holy wells which have many medicinal virtues. Such a one is St. Winifred's, at Holywell, which is accredited with cures that are almost miraculous. The legend of its origin is a very pretty one. It is said that twelve centuries ago St. Winifred, the winsome daughter of a Welsh chief, was wooed by Prince Caradoc, a prince of ill repute. She declined his persistent advances, and at last he killed her in a fit of rage. From the spot on which St. Winifred's lifeblood fell there gushed forth a stream of crystal water which has worked miracles in her name for so many centuries.

Practically all the ills to which the flesh is heir can be cured by one or another of these wells. St. Ninan's, in Cornwall, is said to restore lunatics to sanity, but the patient must be immersed in the water and held there until the breath has nearly left his body. This seems a heroic measure. But even this is not so severe as the treatment which must be endured if a madman is to be cured at Llandegla well, in Wales, for after the victim is nearly drowned he is trussed like a fowl and laid under the communion table of the neighboring church for the night.

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anaemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Shirel, Middlesborough, Ill., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

FILIPINOS TO PROTECT ANIMALS

Societies for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals May Be Formed.

Washington, March 7.—The bureau of insular affairs war department has just received act No. 1,285, enacted by the Philippine commission, authorizing the corporations of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals in the Philippine islands.

The organization is authorized to appoint agents in the islands who shall have the authority to make arrests for violation of the laws enacted by the commission. Those who are acquainted with the habits of the Orient in the treatment of animals can not but recognize that the society will find a wide field of usefulness.

Many Emigrants Arrive.

New York, March 7.—Nearly 20,000 emigrants, fore-runners of the spring rush, are scheduled to arrive this week. Last week 14,585 were brought in by thirteen ships. Of the eighteen ships scheduled to arrive seven will bring 7,587 Italians. Of the large number now coming from Italy the majority will go west.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION.

Notice is hereby given that we, the undersigned, intend to apply to the Governor of the State of Florida for Letters Patent to be issued to WILLIAMS COMPANY, a proposed corporation under the Laws of the State of Florida, of which company the following shall be the Articles of Incorporation.

This notice is given pursuant to the requirements of the State of Florida, and the Articles of Incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State, and are given below.

J. R. WILLIAMS,
J. W. COLLINS,
H. N. LEROY.

ARTICLE I.—The name of the corporation shall be WILLIAMS COMPANY, and its principal place of business shall be in Alachua, Alachua county, Florida, but it may establish offices and agencies at other places within the State of Florida.

ARTICLE II.—The general nature of the business to be transacted by this corporation is to buy and sell all kinds of merchandise, supplies, machinery and personal property, buy, sell, mortgage and lease real estate, advance and loan money on lands and personal property; and this corporation shall have power generally to do and perform, have, hold, acquire and enjoy all other property, powers and things, as shall be incident, necessary or expedient for the conducting the necessary operation of the business, and generally to be vested and have all the powers granted, or which may be hereinafter granted to corporations for profit under the Laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE III.—The amount of the capital stock of said company shall be Ten Thousand Dollars, divided into one hundred shares, each of the par value of One Hundred Dollars, to be paid in as follows: Six Thousand Dollars in cash, and the balance to remain in the treasury to be disposed of in such manner as the directors may designate.

ARTICLE IV.—The term for which this corporation is to exist is ninety-nine years.

ARTICLE V.—The business of this corporation shall be conducted by a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer and a board of three directors; the office of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person. The board of directors shall be elected by the stockholders at the meeting to be held on the first Monday in June, 1905, and annually thereafter. The board of directors shall elect the officers of the company; the president and vice-president shall be elected from among the board of directors. Until the first election, and until their successors shall be qualified, the following officers and directors shall conduct the business of the company: J. R. Williams, president; J. W. Collins, vice-president; H. N. LeRoy, secretary and treasurer, and J. R. Williams, J. W. Collins and H. N. LeRoy shall constitute the first board of directors.

ARTICLE VI.—The highest indebtedness or liability to which this corporation can at any time subject itself is Ten Thousand Dollars.

ARTICLE VII.—The names and residences of the incorporators of said corporation and the subscribers of stock thereof, with the number of shares subscribed for by each, are as follows:

J. R. Williams, Alachua, Florida—21 shares.
J. W. Collins, Alachua, Florida—19 shares.
H. N. LeRoy, Alachua, Florida—20 shares.

STATE OF FLORIDA,
ALACHUA COUNTY.

Personally on this day, before me, a justice of the peace in and for said county and State, appeared J. R. Williams, J. W. Collins and H. N. LeRoy, to me well known, and known to me to be the persons who subscribed the foregoing, and severally acknowledged before me that they subscribed the same.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 4th day of March, A. D. 1905, in said Alachua county.

[OFFICIAL SEAL] E. E. BELL,
Justice of the Peace.

GROWING UP

There's something the matter with the child that fails to grow up. A child that grows up too much, however, without proper filling out of flesh, is almost as badly off. Nothing will help these pale, thin "weedy" children like Scott's Emulsion. It supplies the rounding out of flesh and the rich inward nourishment of blood and vital organs which insures rapid growth a healthy and uniform development.

KEYS TURNED OVER TO REX.

Mardi Gras Carnival Holds Absolute Sway in New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 7.—With bright and sunshiny weather, the temperature above sixty, the carnival of 1905 was ushered in today and though the inauguration deflected much travel that usually comes south at this season of the year, an immense multitude of strangers are in the city, arriving trains constantly pouring large accessions. The hotels have long since been crowded to their capacity and boarding houses are filled throughout the city. There is an unusually number of private cars here which are housing parties who have come to the festivities and many found accommodations on boats. The feature of the day was the arrival of Rex. He came aboard the United States steamer Stranger, attended by a large and brilliant retinue and a naval fleet gaily decorated for the occasion and he was received by a large military and civic escort and a vast assemblage of loyal subjects at the foot of Canal street, whence he traversed the principal streets to the city hall where Mayor Behrman turned over to him the keys of the city. Tonight Proteus will give a magnificent pageant concluding with a ball at the French opera house.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

HORSEPOWER.

The Unit as It Was Originated and Defined by Watt.

When steam engines were employed to drive mills, pumps and other machinery which had been previously driven by horses, it was natural to attempt to express the work done by them in terms of the working power of the horse.

James Watt was the first to define the unit of horsepower, which by experiment he found to be 33,000 foot pounds a minute. In other words, a one horsepower engine would raise 33,000 pounds one foot every minute, and so on proportionally to the number of "horsepowers" indicated by the engine.

He arrived at this conclusion by observing the work done by heavy dray horses in breweries working eight hours daily and found that a horse going at the rate of two miles and a half an hour could raise a weight of 150 pounds by a rope led over a pulley, which is equal to 33,000 pounds raised one foot in one minute.

Watt, for the credit of his engines, selected horses of more than average power.

THE ELDER TREE.

In Days Long Gone by It Was Held In Disrepute.

In olden days to be crowned with elder was a disgrace. In an old play we read, "Laurel for a garland and elder for disgrace." This may have been due to the story which Shakespeare has noticed that Judas hanged himself upon an elder tree:

Well follow'd; Judas was hanged on an elder.—"Love's Labour's Lost."

This legend was generally accepted. Ben Jonson in "Every Man Out of His Humour" has, "He shall be your Judas, and you shall be his elder tree to hang on," and Nixon in his "Strange Footsteps," "Our gardens will prosper the better when they have in them not one of those elders whereupon so many covetous Judases hang themselves."

Shakespeare also makes it an emblem of grief:

Grow patience
And let the stinking elder, grief, untwine
His perishing root with the increasing vine.—"Cymbeline."

—London Telegraph.

Blucher and His Pipe.

Cromwell's Ironsides were smokers, and large numbers of pipes have been dug up from the sites of William III.'s camps. The wars of the eighteenth century found tobacco esteemed in all armies, and Wellington was the only general who objected to it. Even he was moved to admiration by the unconscious heroism of Blucher's pipe servant at Waterloo. Everywhere he went Blucher was attended by Christian Henneman, a hussar, carrying clay pipes and tobacco for the general's refreshment. As his share of the fight began at Waterloo, Blucher sat his charger gravely puffing away. He had reached out his hand to take a refilled pipe when a cannon ball plowed up the ground before him. He exclaimed: "Get a fresh pipe for me! I'm going to drive those rascally Frenchmen back!" It was evening before he returned, riding with Wellington over the stricken field. Where he had left him Blucher found Henneman, wounded and bleeding, but with the pipe ready according to orders. "You have been admiring my highlanders," said Wellington, "but what shall I say of this brave man?" "Well, your highlanders had no tobacco to inspire them," replied Blucher.—London Standard.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles F. Lemberger of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at all drug stores.

J. S. Bailey, a prominent citizen of the Yular section, has returned to his home, after a business trip to this city.

The friends of Dr. Benjamin Matheson will regret to learn that he is quite sick at the home of his brother, J. D. Matheson.

John W. West of Valdosta, a prominent naval stores factor of the Georgia city, has returned to his home, after a business trip here.

Demand greatest ever known for the famous Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla extracts. February sales made a new high-water mark.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rosborough and daughter, Miss Nellie, are in the city from Uniontown, Pa., and are pleasantly located at the Brown House.

T. B. Hayley, an extensive naval stores operator of Mayo, LaFayette county, is in the city on business connected with the United States land office.

F. S. Curl of Archer passed through the city yesterday en route to Tallahassee, where he will represent Archer Lodge No. 62, Knights of Pythias, at the session of the Grand Lodge.

George P. Morris of Waldo was among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday. He states that real estate in his town is in demand, and that Waldo altogether is on a healthy boom.

J. B. Cutler of Ocala, formerly division trainmaster in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line, but now an ice manufacturer who owns and operates several plants, has returned to Dunnellon, after a business trip here.

Today is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lenton season, and all good Episcopalians and Catholics must "cut out" the dance, card playing, or anything else which is supposed to be all right except in the season of Lent.

The Sun acknowledges a fraternal call yesterday from Benj. M. Caldwell of Jasper. Mr. Caldwell was until recently publisher of The White Springs Herald, one of the most interesting and best edited weeklies in the State, but disposed of his interest in order to accept a position as organizer of the Woodmen of the World.

L. D. Rawls and M. D. Bryan, two of Alachua's progressive planters, were transacting business in this city Monday.

W. B. Sadler departed Monday for Abbott, on the Seaboard Air Line Railway, where he went to relieve the agent of the Seaboard for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Tompkins and W. A. Brice of Micanopy were among the arrivals in this city yesterday. The gentlemen were en route to Tallahassee, where they will represent Micanopy lodge at the Grand Lodge, K. of P.

Registration Notice.—Notice is hereby given that the registration books of the city of Gainesville are now open at my office in the United States land office, and all persons desiring to do so can register on or before March 12th, 1905. J. M. Dell, City Clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Endel of Greenville, S. C., are in the city, guests of the former's brothers, Marcus and Jacob Endel. Mr. Endel, who is a prominent merchant of Greenville, was recently married in Baltimore to Miss Frances Gruber, a most charming young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Jones are rejoicing over the birth of a fine girl, while Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pournell have added to their home a handsome boy, which will no doubt afford the father an opportunity for "double duty" for the next few months. The Sun extends congratulations to all parties.

Miss Maud McDonald of Atlanta, the accomplished niece of Mrs. J. B. Davis, who has been on a visit here for the past few days, has been called home on account of the sudden death of her grandmother. This young lady made many friends here who admired her greatly and regretted very much that she was called home on such a sad and sudden mission.

Among the prominent visitors to this city yesterday was Hon. Chas. W. Adams of Jacksonville. Col. Adams is president of the Jacksonville Bar Association, and was a candidate for the exalted office of judge of the Supreme Court on the Republican State ticket during the last campaign. He is regarded as one of the most competent members of the legal profession in Florida.

Lexington, Tenn., June 5, 1901.

This is to certify that about March last I suffered intensely with my back and kidneys. Just prior to this I had undergone treatment for bladder trouble and was relieved, except the treatment was followed by the above trouble. It was recommended that I try "Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery." I took one dose on retiring at night, and to my agreeable astonishment, I found myself relieved. One dose did the work. There is no bosh about this. It is wonderful.

Respectfully,
C. R. Scott,
Proprietor Scott House, formerly county chief clerk, postmaster, etc.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

After a short visit to this city in attendance at the court, F. P. Henderson, the peach grower of Arno, has returned to his home. Mr. Henderson states that the cold of a few weeks ago did not affect his trees, which are now literally loaded with miniature fruit, with prospects for a large crop. Mr. Henderson has a tract of 320 acres, the greater part of which is set in peaches of the choicest and most hardy varieties.

J. E. Wainwright of the United States land office has returned from Pierson, where he is interested in an orange grove on the banks of Lake George. Mr. Wainwright states that his trees were never in a better condition, the leaves not even being shedded from the effects of the cold. They are putting on a fine bloom, and the prospects are good for a fine crop next season. The groves on high pine land in that section, however, did not fare so well, and as a rule the leaves on these trees shedded, except in instances where the groves were fired.
